

YOUR CV

The most important professional document that can make or break your career.

The purpose of the CV is to collect together all your achievements, skills, experience, qualifications and display them in a condensed, well presented format that will convince an employer to give you an interview slot.

Common CV mistakes

- Too lengthy or too short.
- Hard to read.
- Poor spelling and grammar.
- Not visually appealing.
- Inconsistent / poor formatting.
- Casual photograph.
- Less than professional e-mail address.
- A meaningless introduction.
- Writing in third person narration.
- Usage of overly simplistic terminology.
- Lying or manipulation of the truth.
- Mysterious gaps in employment / studies.
- Overuse of personal pronouns.
- Not listing achievements.
- Not introducing the companies that you have worked for.
- Repetition of any kind (e.g job responsibilities)
- Not including enough detail in current job role.

- Too much details in older job roles.
- Reasons for leaving.
- Being too vague.
- Not following the set protocols.
- Irrelevant hobbies.
- Salary details & requirements.
- Including in-appropriate references.
- Poor file naming.

Professional CV writing can not only avoid the above mentioned mistakes in your CV but will also convey your value to prospective employers.

The importance of a well written Professional CV cannot be stressed upon enough.

Your CV is a medium for advertising yourself & presenting yourself as a job applicant in a manner to claim that you are the best choice candidate to the prospective employer.

Make the positive impression on the employer with the right CV.

Remember, you have less than a minute to get yourself noticed thru your CV, grab employers attention thru a professionally written CV.